

New Block Challenge for 2027!

We're thrilled to announce the return of our annual RBD Block Challenge, kicking off in January 2027! What began during the pandemic as a way to bring the quilting community together has grown into a beloved tradition—both for us and for quilters everywhere.

As in years past, we'll be stitching two beautiful versions of the quilt: one in Confetti Cotton solids and the other in Batiks. Each version offers a stunning showcase of color, texture, and creativity.

The Block Challenge is supported each week with a free pattern, email, blog post, and video tutorial—everything your customers need to follow along and stay inspired.

If your shop plans to offer kits for either version, we'd love to feature you in our kick-off blog post. Just email us at blog@rileyblakedesigns.com to be included.

Let the countdown begin—we'll see you in January!
