About the Company

American Jane began in 2003 by Sandy Klop and since then the American Jane name has appeared on the selvedge of 40 fabric collections, in multiple magazines and on the cover of some. American Jane have produced over 450 patterns, 3 books and appeared in several others. Known for vintage and happy prints, American Jane fabric and patterns have shipped all over the world. The patterns range from beginner, intermediate to advanced. Covering coast to coast USA, many quilts have been made using American Jane fabrics and patterns to welcome newborns, to share with a loved one, or to keep a prized heirloom treasure to save for special occasions only. American Jane fabrics and patterns have been known to make people of all ages feel young and happy right now, enjoying the vintage classics and the new prints with which you can make something great today.
