About the Collection

The August Meadow collection from Liberty Fabrics presents a sophisticated and timeless blossom design in refined hues and tones, inspired by the world of paint and interiors.

August Meadow was originally designed for Liberty in 1958, and has been meticulously redrawn for this collection, to highlight the delicate buds and dancing stems of the 1950’s original. The result is a charming and subtle tone-on-tone design, available in a sophisticated palette that’s guaranteed to add an understated beauty to your crafting projects.

Designed as a blender fabric, August Meadow sits alongside our vast archive of Liberty prints. Traditionally screen printed onto Lasenby cotton, a soft base developed by Liberty Fabrics, specifically for quilting and craft projects.
