About the Line

As a child, Christmas wasn't just a holiday; it was a kind of magic that felt almost too heavy to hold. I remember lying in bed on Christmas Eve, pinching my arm and whispering to the darkness, 'It's still Christmas,' desperate to anchor myself to the moment. I knew that once I closed my eyes, the spell would break until next year. I hope this nostalgic collection brings back that same sense of wonder and those magical memories for you of way back when.
