In the Echoes collection there are traditional Batik Kawung motifs. This motif is one of the oldest and most revered, recognizable by its geometric pattern of four intersecting ovals that resemble a blossoming lotus or the fruit of the sugar palm. It symbolizes the four cardinal directions and a central spiritual power. The motif's meaning can mean to remain centered, balanced or self-controlled. Batik Kawung is a powerful cultural symbol of Indonesian identity, representing a balance between the physical, emotional and spiritual.
