About the Line

“Eleanor” is dedicated to my Nana Eleanor who was a master seamstress and crafter. She always wanted to teach me to sew and I was too intimidated to even try. It wasn’t until after she passed that I realized my missed opportunity. So my husband went out and bought me a $70 sewing machine and said, “All she wanted was for you to sew.” And I have been sewing in her honor ever since! This collection is a tribute to her and the way she taught me about the beauty of women, friendship, and creativity - and the magic that happens when they all come together! Being third-gen Mexican-American, I’m constantly inspired by my heritage and to all the women who create artful treasures we have all come to know and love.
