Introducing FLEA MARKET by Lori Holt of Bee in my Bonnet. Lori has been an avid thrifter, antique shop browser and flea market shopper for many years and she has created these prints within that style for you! She enjoys collecting and also refurbishing old items for a new purpose.

Lori loves the beauty and classic style of all things vintage…such as furniture and other household items…especially old quilts, old mixing bowls, old vases, old flower pots, old linens, old chairs etc. Lori was taught this saying by both of her grandmothers, “Use it up, Wear it out, Make it do or do without” and she has tried to live by these words.

Her Flea Market Collection fits right in with her previous vintage style fabric collections… each Flea Market print provokes the past in a charming and nostalgic way. With this new collection you will be able to create many projects and sweet memories from the past within the walls of your own home.
