About the Line

Happy at Home - These three words describe me to a T! Home is where I create, dream, work, and live. My husband and I (and a few dozen contractors) have transformed an old 1923 craftsman fixer upper in Portland, Oregon into a home we both adore.

We've put our fingerprint on every space and every surface - remodeling bathrooms and the kitchen and painting and decorating. We created work spaces for me to paint, sew, craft and build my business. Twenty-five years of license plates from different places we've lived have even been incorporated on the basement stairs and the Little Free Library I built when we first moved in.

But to me "HOME" is more than just the physical space and the things that are in it - it's a feeling. It's the safe place to go when you are both happy and sad. The place and people that just feel right. I feel fortunate to do work that I love from a place that always feels like home.

Wishing you joy, creativity and love - from my home to yours.
