About the Line

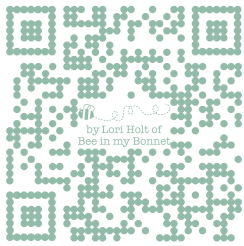

Lori Holt of Bee in my Bonnet

Lori Holt’s newest designer fabric collection, Home Town pays homage to her very own home town in Utah – inspired by the memories and the families she fondly remembers. Each one of the darling florals and sparkling geometric prints from this designer fabric collection are named after those families. Who could think of anything sweeter?

This collection is full of heart and soul in Lori’s classic, vintage style we’ve all fallen in love with. Lori hopes to inspire you to reminisce about your own home town, and put those sweet memories and this charming designer fabric collection together to create quilts and home décor projects today!

Don’t miss Lori’s Home Town Sew Along and the wonderful notions she’s designed to complement this lovely collection. She has designed each with sentiment and endearing memories of growing up in the small town that remains ever dear to her heart.
