About the Line

As busy moms of growing families in this modern world, that at times seems so loud, complicated, and contentious, life can sometimes seem hectic.

Often we think back to a time that is filled with idyllic images of simplicity... families gathered around the dinner table eating a home cooked meal or enjoying the sunset out on the front porch after the chores are finished...the life led on a country farmhouse from days gone by.

While designing “Modern Farmhouse” we took our inspiration from these images using their simplicity, values, and wholesomeness to create prints that would help us to reproduce those same feelings and emotions we try our best to capture, not just in our quilting, but in our own modern homes as well. We hope others will enjoy this collection as much as we do.
