About the Line

This southern floral collection is reminiscent of all my favorite childhood memories at Gramma's house. Her giant back porch swing was the coveted spot for after dinner naps and always filled with beautiful textiles. Every visit to my grandmother involved Saturday morning thrifting for treasures at garage sales in her Florida neighborhoods. Often she would find remnant designer linens that she used in her quilts and homemade pillows and curtains. Always reupholstering, repurposing, refinishing and refining, my Gramma B's home was one full of comforting and beautiful prints. A coral pink couch, a blue striped chair, and mustard accent pillows fill up my memories of her ability to give old things new life, and create a treasured place we wanted to return to again and again.
