About Season's Greetings

Arthur Lasenby Liberty first opened the Liberty store on Regent Street in London on May 15th 1875, selling imported ornaments textiles and artefacts from the East. Liberty's wish was to influence the public's taste by giving them the opportunity to buy beautiful and otherwise unattainable things.

Liberty Fabrics celebrates the festive season with a new collection of prints, designed in the London studio. Traditional Christmas decorations dance alongside wintry florals, berries and fir branches, with metallic highlights. Contemporary hues such as rich pomegranate and glossy ivy give seasonal sewing projects a sophisticated edge.
