Making Friends Main Panel

Larry and Gerry are making a to-day. Gerry rolls a big for Mr. Snowman's . Larry rolls a big for Mr. Snowman's . Then roll a big, big, big snowball for Mr. to stand upon. Then when he is put together, Larry and Gerry find pieces of for his , and , and . My, but he is a fierce-looking, old chap. "Bow-wow-wow," barks . He is almost afraid of Mr. . "Mew-mew-mew," says . She is almost afraid of Mr. . "Let's build a snow in front of Mr. ," says Larry. "He can be a giant in his ." "Let's," says Gerry. So they build a . "Now I'll call Dick on the , and you call Betty, and maybe they'll come over for a snow battle." So they do this, and soon Betty and Dick are with them and ready for a snow . Larry, and Betty, and are on the giant's side. Gerry, and Dick, and are to capture the . "If one of you can get behind our of snow, the is taken," says Larry. "All right," says Dick, and then Larry blows a and both sides begin to make and the fight begins. How the balls fly! How mews. How barks! Near the fort is a small . Suddenly Dick calls "Whoo-pe, we've won, we've won." "No, sir," yells . "Yes, sir," hollers back Dick. "See !" And sure enough, the look, and Sticktight is just jumping from the right inside the . How Gerry shouts! How Dick shouts! The is taken and is the hero! Gerry and Dick run and get Sticktight and decorate her with Gerry's red . Then they march around the yard and sing. "Hurrah, hurrah for the that makes you free,"—and Tagalong and Larry and Betty march out of the in a little sorrowful line just like this . Maybe will have cream for supper to-night.

About the Line

The Snow Sweet collection grew out of a series of snowman families that Janet painted and personalized at art fairs when she first started painting in watercolor. They were in such demand and so fun to draw that she created snowmen for greeting cards, prints and eventually fabric. The timeless snow folk characters in her signature style are combined with favorite Christmas cookie recipes, vintage cook book text and presented in this new, contemporary classic!
