About the Line

Gracey Larson
@burlapandblossompatterns

Wild and Free was inspired by my love for my great country; the United States of America! From coast to coast, we are blessed with some of the most glorious and beautiful creation in the world, especially our national paint palette of wildflowers! Every state in the USA has its own state flower which, when you combine them all together, create the most beautiful bouquet! This fabric collection takes us all on a fun road trip across the country, as birds fly through the white-clouded, painted sky, and fireflies glow and dance in the grass, to collect flowers throughout the land of the free and the home of the brave. The light color palette of pinks, golds, greens, mints, and peaches, are contrasted by warm charcoal black to create a playful, carefree color palette of flowers, which remind us to always LIVE as people who are FREE!
